SPRING FESTIVAL RETURNS TO DARLINGTON POINT

Darlington Point's Spring Festival is back and its shaping up to be bigger and better than ever.

Organisers are gearing up for an influx of visitors to the town next Saturday, 23 September after last year's event had to be cancelled due to flooding.

From craft stalls and clothing to cakes and cars, the popular Festival features a wide variety of attractions for the whole family to enjoy.

Darlington Point Town Life Committee member, Margaret King, said everything was in place for a top Festival.

"We've already got around 50 stalls booked in and plenty of others interested," she said

"We hope to see lots of people come along and enjoy everything we've got planned. There really is something for everyone.

"I can't think of a better way to enjoy a spring day. The expansive grassed area of CWA Park is a fantastic site and venue."

Starting at 10am, there will be plenty to do to keep everyone happy throughout the day.

A host of activities have been planned for the kids, including a jumping castle, train rides and face painting.

Local rev heads will be in their element, with a car show also taking place at CWA Park. Live music will also be provided during the Festival.

So why not head out to Darlington Point and enjoy all the fun of the Spring Festival?
