Lifetime Achievement Award	Kevan Boyle	This person has played a significant role in the development of many facets of the Coleambally community as we see it today. He is an amazing and inspirational person, he gives so much to our community and is a great ambassador for people with disabilities with his positive attitude. He has contributed so much to our community, most of it ongoing over many years – member of Board of Cypress View Lodge, Board member Coleambally Community Bank, Treasurer VRA and 24/7 call out contact for SES, Treasurer Mens' shed, Australia Day Committee, Vice President Riverina Vintage Machinery Club and Treasurer Coleambally Rally Committee and a JP.
Young Citizen of the Year	Thomas Breed	Tom has been a very active member of the Coleambally Rural Fire Brigade and also with the greater MIA Zone. Tom was the instigator of a program that saw him GPS mapping all of the fire hydrants in Coleambally and then testing each one to check that they are in suitable working order. He also voluntarily and very successfully, ran a recruitment day for all Emergency Services. These included the local VRA, the SES and of course the Rural Fire Service. He was involved in training days that are held frequently for Rural Fire Service volunteers. He also regularly checks smoke alarms and cleans gutters for the aged members of our community.
		Tom spent some time volunteering at the MIA Zone Office, helping with general clean ups and office duties where he was able to learn a lot more about how the fire emergency service operates.
		Tom is a very willing and capable volunteer, having completed a lot of his training with the RFS cadet training within the school system.
		He is a fine example to his younger peers and has achieved so much while still a student at Coleambally Central School.

		His attitude and ability to get along with adult volunteers will take him to greater heights.
		Tom received a Rudy Meyer Memorial Scholarship from CEF CDP to attend an Outward Bound Course. He led SRC activities at CCS.
Citizen of the Year	Dianne Anderson	Dianne is a valued member of the local community. She organised the Yamma Xmas Party, craft activities for children at Yamma Hall at Easter and Xmas. When Bec Collie had her accident, she organised the Collie rice harvest – trucks, headers, bin drivers and food. She is secretary of Yamma Hall Management Committee and organised the Ladies' badminton competition.
		She was a key member of the Beck's Future Fund Goods and Services Auction committee. Dianne contributes her time and energy into providing opportunities for local neighbours, friends, families, parents and children to get together to build a sense of belonging within the community.
